One-to-One
CONSULTATION BETWEEN STUDENT
AND PROFESSOR

The moment you are admitted to SCU, you are not only a part of SCU, but also a member of your academic department. Each department and school is tailored to provide an impeccable educational experience for students.

Online Lectures

Every week, a large number of videos are produced in the lecture studios using a full HD digital camera, an electronic blackboard, and 3DVR equipment. What is more, online piano lessons are possible through distance learning, connecting the student and professor.

SCU Learning WAVE

SCU has adopted the online educational platform, the SCU Learning WAVE that enables students to have access to lecture content via mobile devices. SCU Learning WAVE lecture content comes in various formats to best accommodate the needs of students with different types of learning activity.

Departments

There are 28 departments at SCU, including the departments of Social Welfare and Counseling Psychology, which have strong merits that lead students to become counselors and social welfare workers. Each department maintains close ties with institutions and industrial enterprises to encourage students to participate in vocational training.

Student Service

SCU operates a Student Service Center to provide one-to-one consultation to enrolled students and prospective students who may join SCU in a foreseeable future. The Student Service Center acts as a pivotal force at SCU, connecting students to multiple divisions and offices. Staff members are ready to answer inquiries and solve problems that students may encounter during their academic years.

International Relations

SCU is now extending its international relations by partnering with universities overseas.

Northern Arctic Federal University (NArFU)

Northern Arctic Federal University (NArFU) was established as an institution of higher education by the decree of President Dmitry Medvedev on June 8, 2010. NArFU is orientated towards providing technical education and support to develop and utilize the Arctic regions, while safeguarding the regional environment. At the same time, NArFU is focused on nurturing students through social and humanitarian studies.

Experience tells you the quality

I presume that the high rate of student re-enrollment can act as the gage of students' satisfaction of the university's education. SCU is the only online university in Korea to have a record-high 90% re-enrollment rate for students, over 3 consecutive years. Many students are applying to SCU based on its good reputation from graduates. Therefore, I strongly recommend SCU to any prospective students.

Young tak Lee
Former Vice Minister of Education

SCU rigorously assesses the faculty's performances and research achievements, which guarantees students the right instruction and guidance throughout their education. Students can expect a high-quality education from distinguished faculty members from world renowned universities. I can reassure that SCU provides the best online education in Korea.

Steve Yun Kim
Chairman of Dream Hope Future Foundation

SCU's investment to deliver the online education is greatly impressive. Upon inspecting the lecture studio and its facility, I am amazed how comprehensive and well-constructed the entire facility is and how professional staff members are at the lecture studio. Moreover, the recording process of lecture is seamless.

INTERVIEW

Jisoo Kim Department of Piano

Being a teacher at a middle school, deep down inside, I always had a yearning to pursue my dream of becoming a pianist. As a student in the Department of Piano, I am living a diverse life of being teacher and a student at the same time. I am so glad that the Department of Piano offers small group lessons and opportunities to join master classes with well-known international musicians.

Tsuzuki Kayo
Department of Family Counseling

I am a housewife and a graduate from the Department of Family Counseling at Seoul Cyber University. The education at SCU has given me another opportunity to grow in my late middle-aged years. I felt that my intellectual appetite and curiosity were satiated with the online lecture and reading materials. SCU offered a new online educational experience, in which the student and faculty are really well connected, both online and offline.

Jinho Ahn
Department of Business Administration

I am the CEO of YarnTree Co., Ltd., which launched "KoreanMall," the online shopping mall that trades Korean stationery products overseas. KoreanMall has become a portal to direct transactions between Korean suppliers and foreign customers. The Department of Business Administration at SCU provided courses on corporate management, entrepreneurship, and marketing strategies that helped me form the case studies that lead to KoreanMall. I am a proud graduate of SCU and I encourage students to join the Department of Business Administration. SCU has guided me in paving my career and business pathways.

Social Activities

SCU is truly concerned with social reform and promotes club activities that make a practical contribution to neighbors and the community. SCU WAVE Volunteer Corps is the major volunteer group for students, professors and staff members at SCU. Smaller volunteer clubs regionally based throughout Seoul, Gyeonggi and Gangwon areas are equally effective and consistent in their charitable work, as they regularly visit welfare and community centers in each region.

SCU WAVE Volunteer Corps

SCU WAVE Volunteer Corps (SCU WAVE Corps) was formed in 2011 with the unprompted participation of SCU's students and faculty members. It aims to provide long-term relief to those who need it most in the community and plans volunteer activities or projects that continue over an extended period of time.

Quarterly events SCU WAVE Corps members

- Donating blood & the certificates of blood donation to the Korean Red Cross.
- Free lecture and training sessions for underprivileged students.
- Free family photos for multicultural families at SCU campus
- Overseas volunteer projects, partnering with nonprofit organizations, such as Good People International.

SCU Love of Gangwon-Yeongdong Club

The "SCU Love of Gangwon-Yeongdong Club" was established in 2005 to let students and graduates share important information in relation to volunteering and employment. The gathering started in the Gangwon province but expanded to include Yeongdong region. Approximately 140 students currently participate in the club and volunteer under the alias of "Seoul Cyber University: Love of Gangwon-Yeongdong Voluntary Work Team", working with local social organizations. This club received the "Best Club Award" for two consecutive years for its continuous and constant volunteer efforts. It also received the "Excellent Group Award" during the Volunteers' Night in Gangwon Province.
